President's Report: by Linda Hart, NOAA President

Greetings NOAA members,

I am happy to report that September's Zoom meeting was well received with good attendance. Everyone enjoyed seeing each other after all this time and our virtual gallery featuring work by Julie Saputo, Laura Saxon, Wanda McKinney, and Mary Beth Machenberg.

Our October 15 meeting will be a combination of in-person and online (disclaimer: technology/expertise permitting!). Hard working treasurer Wanda McKinney has arranged for us to meet, masked and socially distanced, at Clearview Mall's Clearview Room adjacent to the former food court. This venue provides more room to spread out, particularly during check in.

We will try to do Artist of the Month in person and virtually— Zoomers, please email a low resolution .jpg with your name, painting title, and medium to me at lr.nicama@gmail.com by Wednesday, Oct 14th at 2:00pm.

Palmer Park Art Market is changing its format.

Please contact Michelle Eroche at michelle.eroche@yahoo.com to participate.

Let's hear your thoughts for future meeting activities:

- Short demonstrations: processes shown completed at various stages, less live painting?
- Sketch sessions with models, photos, or still life?
- Draw or paint-alongs?

We need fundraising ideas and members to carry them out — what about:

- virtual members show
- raffles, bidding

Dues are payable by check or (new!) PayPal. The PayPal address is noartassoc@yahoo.com.

If paying at the meeting, please use your own pen to help reduce physical contact.

Details for payment are on page 4 of this newsletter and at noartassoc.org. /membership.

Dues must be current to maintain NOAA signature status.

Share your work on our website by emailing a link to your webpage or low-resolution individual .jpg images to webmaster Michelle Eroche at michelle.eroche@yahoo.com. Thanks, Michelle!

Keep on painting,

~Linda
